Newmarket Rink Misses By 3 Points

After defeating a strong team from New York in the semi-finals of the Eaton Gold Trophy at the Boulevard club in Toronto Wednesday, the Newmarket lawn bowling rink of Vaughan Goring, Bert Budd, Jack Luck and skip, Andrew Murdison, lost the final game in the 21st end by three after a tie score of 17 in the 20th end, to a rink from the Kodak company in Toronto and skipped by Cockshoot.

The Cockshoot rink was the defending champion and its second successive win on Wednesday sets a record for Eaton play.

The tournament began Monday with the Newmarket rink beating its way towards the finals with steady winning play. The Newmarket rink took the first game from Gaw of Moore Park 15-9; succeeding games, from Young of Wells Hill, 15-13; Hutchinson of Withrow Park, 19-18; Salisbury of Balmy Beach, 14-10; Emery of Hamilton Strathcona, 17-9; and Cuthbertson of New York, 17-9. Last year, the Newmarket rink of Jack Luck, Bert Budd, James Law and skipped by Andrew Murdison, reached the semi-finals.

Davis Leather Has Third Annual Picnic

Davis Leather Company employees gathered at Alcona Beach last Saturday afternoon for their third annual picnic. Some 600 made the trip by special buses or cars. They put in a busy round of sports, games and races. The younger fry didn't suffer any pangs of hunger as the free ice cream, popsicles were dished out. All sat down for supper at six o'clock. Newmarket Citizens' Band provided the music throughout the day.

Featuring the day was the win by the upstairs horse-shoe pitchers, Gar Farren and Matt Duncan, who rang up a victory over their downstairs rivals, Geo. Ingledew, Jr., and Bill Bone to take the championship. The downstairs got revenge in the softball challenge game, the closing feature of the day, as they punched out a close 9-7 win.

There were races of all kinds for young and old. The baseball throwing contest went to Gordon Hill. The rolling pin throwing championship ended up with Mrs. Jack Groves, Jr. (better start ducking, Jack). Mrs. Frances DeLugos won the shoe kicking contest. There was one repeat performance in the wheel barrow race when Les Wright and Freeman West took down a first to duplicate their feat of last year.

Mrs. Gladys Harman put the bee on "Lil Abner" at the right time to guess Leo Forhan was "it". Jim Cullen, Sr., guessed that Miss Bertha Brown of the office staff was "Daisy Mae". All in all, it was another big success and enjoyed by all.

Aurora Carnival Draws Heavy Crowd

Aurora — With ideal weather prevailing, the Aurora Legion carnival on Friday night and Saturday, despite counter-attractions at Nobleton and Queensville, drew over 5,000 people and there was never a dull moment. While final returns are not available those in charge say the building fund received a big boost, and that the splendid hall model constructed by George Duffield will be a reality in the not too distant future. Everyone on the grounds from prize-winners Mrs. Harriett Chapman, 91, and Alex Hurst, 89, both of Aurora, to the youngest toddlers found something of special interest, and enjoyed a good time.

Mrs. Ben Langdon of King was the winner of the washing machine donated by Jim Wilson, Mrs. Wm. Bull of Aurora won the Aurora Electric's combination radio - phonograph, Lorne Evans, the Handi-Chef (J. W. Bowser), W. Carter, smoking stand (P. M. Thompson), Norman Rumble, Oak Ridges, electric fan (T. K. Fice), Mrs. Norman Rumble, pair of shoes (George Duffield). Those present failed to recall two prizes going to one home on the same draw before.

Nineteen-year-old Fred Weaver of Niagara Falls, popular ballad singer, won the top honors of the amateur show on Saturday night. Jim McDonald of King, winner of Friday night's North York show, took second in the open class with a fine display of scat singing and boogie-woogie piano work, while top dancer Shirley Wiles, 19, Toronto, was placed third by judges Harvey Dobbs, Toronto, Bayard Bryant, Woodbridge, and Mrs. Walter Rolling, King. In the juvenile show on Saturday afternoon, five-year-old Patsy Jordan, billed as "the rubber baby," stole the show by a few scant points over 13-year-old singer David Shantz of Kitchener. Albert Bernardo, Toronto impersonator and 13-year-old trumpeter Frank Davies of Toronto. Patsy Burke of Thornhill was in second place behind Jim McDonald on Friday night's show. Over $100 went in prizes. Bob Carson was accompanist of the show, with Ab. Hulse as master of ceremonies and Alf. Bolsby and "Red" Castles as whips.

Remove Six From Wreck In Race With Flames

Sutton — The quick action of three district men saved six people from possible death in a flaming car on the Sutton-Pefferlaw highway Monday morning. The car had a blow-out and skidded into the ditch on the north side of the highway where it rolled onto its roof. In a matter of seconds, it began to smoke and in a few minutes, it became a blazing ruin.

Moberley Matt, his son, Frank, and W. C. Troyer, working in a field nearby, saw the accident and in a race with the fire, got the six dazed occupants out with only minor burns. Sheridan S. Richardson, Peterboro, was the driver. Passengers were his mother, Mrs. S. J. Richardson, who suffered minor injuries, and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Jones, Peterboro, and Mr. and Mrs. J. McCasko, Hamilton. The latter two couples were taken back to Peterboro. Mrs. McCasko has a fractured shoulder and rib, the others bruises.

County Constable Wm. Hill, Sutton, investigated the accident.

IT'S WHAT THE LAW SAYS

Ignorance Of Law No Excuse Moral Of Recent Court Cases

Newmarket—Two car drivers who pleaded "not guilty" to charges of careless driving have been fined during the last two magistrate's courts held in Newmarket. In both cases the accused drivers seemed convinced that they had done nothing wrong and that the police officers were persecuting them by laying these charges.

In both cases Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake admonished them saying there are people who have been driving the wrong way for years but who have never had an accident and have never been fined. They are not serious offenders, he said, but it is because of drivers like them that the minor highway traffic laws are made and they are not to be treated lightly. It is for the safety of other drivers that these charges are laid, he said. Fines can be more effective than publicity campaigns for safe driving, he added.

One accused driver, who was travelling north on Yonge St., turned right on Eagle St. from a centre lane on a green light and was involved in a slight collision with a car coming from the rear on the right lane. The accused said traffic was too heavy to enable him to get into the right lane to make the turn. Magistrate Hollinrake told the accused he had the distance from Aurora to the corner to get into the right lane.

Another driver who was in court for passing on a hill said that he saw the officer who laid the charges, writing in his "black book" at the time of the offence and could not understand why. The officer stated there was no clear view of traffic coming on the other side of the hill. A recent accident north of Bradford where a car hit a bus on the brow of a hill was the result of passing on a hill.

Four men were convicted in court last Friday for having liquor in an illegal place. They were found drunk at a school grounds in Newmarket; each was fined $11.75 or 30 days in jail. Another was fined for having a bottle of beer in his hip pocket in a Newmarket restaurant.

It is against the law to have an open bottle of liquor any place except in the residence of the owner. The same goes for an opened case of beer. If a person has a bottle of beer anywhere, other than in his residence, even if it is not open, he is guilty. It is the law of the province.

Newmarket — Construction shacks are being built this week at the site for the new low-rental housing project of 50 homes to be erected by the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation south of Eagle St. Grading operations have been completed and town engineer Denne Bosworth said yesterday that excavation work for basements might be started next week.

400 Personal Parcels Sent U.K. Families

Newmarket—With the sending of 70 boxes to Toronto this week for shipment to Great Britain, the Personal Parcel committee has packed a total of over 400 parcels.

At least 80 parcels are packed each month and starting this week, the committee will work on the sixth lot of parcels to the British families. "The attendance during the summer of the packers at the depot has been most gratifying," reports Mrs. M. B. Seldon who feels that this work is one of the most important projects for the community.

Shortening is being included in all shipments and in the fall, lard in one-pound cans will be available also for shipment in these bundles of good will.

"The funds that were contributed last year are gradually being depleted and a call for additional donations will be made in the fall," concluded Mrs. Seldon.

Had To Make Drags Before Search Begun; Plane Locates Body

Pefferlaw—The body of Alex Hill, Newmarket, drowned last Wednesday, was recovered Monday afternoon after it was sighted from a plane engaged to assist in the search. The body was on the surface in shallow water near the shore.

A private burial service was held Tuesday morning at 11 a.m., followed by interment in Aurora cemetery. A memorial service was held in the Church of the Nazarene in Newmarket, of which Mr. Hill had been a member, the same day at 3 p.m. Following the service, the grave was strewn with flowers. Rev. L. E. Sparks conducted the services.

Mr. Hill was lost Wednesday when the boat from which he and Murray Baker had been fishing was swamped east of Duclos Point. Mr. Baker hung on to the boat in the rough water until rescued by Joseph Manly but Mr. Hill went under shortly after being thrown into the water.

Despite strenuous efforts by Mr. Hill's companions at the Church of the Nazarene camp and county police, only one six-foot section of drag could be located along the shore. Dragging equipment was either made at the camp or borrowed from Toronto. County constables William Hill, George Foster, Edgar Kidd and Lawrence O'Neil directed dragging operations Wednesday and Thursday, but the lake was too rough on Friday and Saturday for dragging. Dragging was resumed Sunday and on Monday afternoon a plane was summoned from Hamilton to assist. After a search from the air of close to an hour, the body was sighted.

Street Dance Tonight At Lions Carnival

Newmarket — The Lions club carnival had its first of two nights Wednesday and in spite of threatening clouds in the early part of the evening, there was a good crowd. Tonight, the show continues on Main St. with a street dance to Norm Burling and his King's Men. Booths will also be set up along the main stem; the Lions are expecting a large turn-out this evening. Proceeds from the two-day carnival are used by the Lions in their welfare work throughout the year.

The following are the winners of the ten large prizes at the carnival last night: Frank Burch, Queen St., frigidaire; Harold Sanderson, Andrew St., washing machine; W. G. Nottingham, 44 Pinewood Ave., Toronto, vacuum cleaner; Mrs. Gertrude Vance, 73 Indian Road Cres., Toronto, Kroehler chair; Oscar Burke, 12 Lowell Ave., bicycle; Wesley Brooks, Park Ave., ton of coal; Brian Luesby, Newmarket, two weeks old, pressure cooker; Mr. Roberts, Wilcox Lake, electric tea kettle; B. Hopper, 43 Millard Ave., 100 lbs. of sugar; Mrs. Ferne Jones, 5 Arthur St., electric iron.

Last Saturday these prizes were on display in the window of Ang West's store. According to Ang, five out-of-town guests came in and asked to look at the frigidaire. While he was busy, they looked and left and in that time the electric iron also left and has not been seen since. "One of them must have been a good sport because he had a ball cap and sweater on," he said.

$2 COST-OF-LIVING

Newmarket—Employees of the town will get a cost-of-living bonus of two dollars a week, effective August 16. The bonus will go to all full time employees of the town, regardless of salary. Last year, employees received a $3 cost-of-living bonus.

To Beautify Pond Make Fire Reservoir

Newmarket — The excavation at the north end of Fairey Lake will provide a reservoir of water approximately 20' x 12' x 1,500'. It will provide fire protection and also drain the main part of the lake and so it can be examined and considered for clearing and improving.

At a special meeting of the town council last Thursday evening, a report was given by the committee in charge of the project. The committee is Frank Bowser, Aubrey Scythes and A. D. Evans, chairman. The report said that the committee met with G. L. Manning, managing-director of the Office Specialty, Mr. Lato, the contractor, and Alex. McKenzie, M.P.P., to consider cleaning out the pond, the cost and planning and development. In the discussion, the committee said it felt that the lake, as it was, was not more than ten percent efficient as fire protection. "In discussing the question from the point of planning and development and beautifying, with possibilities of boating, fishing and park areas with Mr. McKenzie, he agreed that Fairey Lake had great possibilities, and promised to arrange a meeting with the Hon. Dana Porter, Minister of Planning and Development, to get the department to help in this important factor in the development of a greater Newmarket," the report said.

A motion was put through to continue the present excavation work which costs $160 a day. The report suggested that approximately $5,000 be spent. $2,500 by the town and $2,500 by the Specialty. It was suggested that the dredging be done east and west along the north bank of the pond and along the west bank towards the creek.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS by Don Graham

When we speak of men as being "successful" it is generally assumed that we are referring to large incomes and prominent positions. But, while these are signs of success, they are by no means its only yardsticks.

Actually, I believe any man is successful who uses his energies and talents to the best of his ability. His earnings may be modest. But if he tries to improve himself and his environment, if he is dependable, agreeable and helpful, if he cares for his family and their needs, he is truly important.

Show me a man with these qualities and I will be proud to claim his acquaintance.

The best objective, surely, is to strive for success in the broader sense of helping to make this a better world!

The world is better because of life insurance which has achieved success through meeting people's need for financial security. And it contributes to the betterment of the whole nation through investments in public works and vital industries which benefit every citizen.

MOUNT ALBERT

Remember the Horticultural flower show in the hall on Thursday, Aug. 26. Bring your exhibits early on Wednesday evening and be sure and remind all school children to have theirs in also. Each member should try and bring in as many exhibits as possible to make the show worth while. Do not leave it to a few to do all the work.

The Horticultural Society is out to make our village a place to be proud of and so asks the public to refrain from throwing unsightly papers all over the main streets. Children can be taught at home to not do this and maybe the grown-ups would see all weeds were cut in front of their own property. How much nicer your place would look and also our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavery, Ottawa, and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, Niagara Falls, were weekend guests at the home of Miss Daisy Watts, who accompanied them back on a trip to Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hollinger, Cherrywood, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Thompson.

The Y.P.U. of Toronto East Presbytery had a very fine service in the United church on Sunday evening which was attended by many young people of the different churches included in the presbytery. Mr. Bill Hiltz of Unionville was the speaker and his text, "The Good Shepherd," was well taken and gave much food for thought for old and young. A quarette and soloist assisted in the musical part of the service. It was a real inspiration to see and hear these young people. We hope they may come again.

Weekend visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watts was unique in the fact an almost complete family reunion was effected. Those from distant points were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Otto, Haliburton, Mrs. Walker Kydd, Apsley, Mrs. P. E. Perryman and Miss Olive Watts, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mertson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald May and family, Queensville, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stiver, and Mr. Stanley Watts, Mount Albert.

A separation of three or four years among five sisters was brought to a happy end by their meeting at the home of one of the sisters, Mrs. Fred Watts, Mount Albert. The others were Mrs. Walker Kydd, Apsley, Mrs. P. E. Perryman, Toronto, Mrs. Byron Stiver, Mount Albert, and Mrs. D. W. Otto, Haliburton.

Business Built On Goodwill

H. W. Theaker Has Active 40 Years In Mount Albert

Mount Albert—H. W. (Wes) Theaker, Mount Albert, gives little heed to the slogan "it pays to advertise". His business is satifactorily maintained by that intangible something which money cannot buy—the goodwill of the people of the district in which he has always lived. Neither he, nor his father before him ever troubled to erect the customary signs. The middle door of his large double shop bears the name Theaker's in small gilt letters and only two words, The Chapel, are incised in the neat stone face of his funeral home.

Besides being the community's kindly and efficient undertaker, Mr. Theaker has been selling furniture and general merchandise on the sloping main street for 40 years, a record which makes him dean of Mount Alber's businessmen.

His father, the late Allen Theaker, came to the village 60 years ago and 1897 bought out Ernest H. Brooks who had a furniture and undertaking establishment in what is now the Mount Albert Hardware store. Fourteen years later, the Theakers moved across the road to the present spacious premises and enlarged their stock to include chinaware and general merchandise. The next major change took place in 1918 when all their horse-drawn equipment was replaced by motors. In 1944 Mr. Wes Theaker built the dignified, modern funeral chapel which is matched by a handsome ambulance and funeral equipment.

Memories Of The Past

Mr. Theaker has garnered a rich fund of reminiscences over the years, but particularly likes to recall the horse and buggy days when, as a lad, he began to help his father. There were two hotels on the main street then and Haigh and Sons Woollen Mill was the town's big industry. It gave employment to ten men and used wool bought from local farmers to manufacture horse blankets and horse collar checks of high quality.

Several times a year he used to haul mattresses from the factory at Bradford, stopping each way to pay toll at the gate between Bradford and Holland Landing. The charge was 25 cents return for a team and light wagon. The mattresses were filled with curled marsh hay. As the time went on they were improved by the addition of a layer of felt over the hay.

Sometimes he drove with his father to the Standard Bank at Stouffville and they often had a month's receipts cached between them in the buggy. It was a three-hour trip there and back.

Now most of the mattresses that Mr. Theaker sells are spring filled and many of his customers are the children and grandchildren of those he first served as a boy. The hotels have disappeared and the woollen mill closed in 1908. It could not compete with the cheaper, shoddy filled, imported goods.

In 1900 the Sovereign Bank was induced to open a branch in Mount Albert and many shares of bank stock were sold in the neighborhood. Eight years later the Sovereign Bank failed and local investors were called upon to meet the double liability. Somehow the community managed to weather this financial catastrophe, but Mr. Theaker remembers it as an anxious time. The district is now served by a branch of the Dominion Bank with Murray Roberts as manager. (D.M.F.)

Mr. and Mrs. Everton Theaker, Picton, visited last week at the home of Mrs. Theaker's brother, Mr. W. H. Theaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Watts and party consisting of Miss Melva Watts, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dillman and daughter, Marie, Brampton, left on July 1 for a motor trip to the western provinces and returned on August 7. During the trip they covered a mileage of 7,888 miles. They visited Vancouver, Lake Louise, Banff, Battleford, Moose Jaw and all the main cities in every province. They also visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodwin, in Sintaluta. While in Vancouver Mr. Watts picked a maple leaf which measured 16¾" by 15½" without the stem. He brought the leaf home under the mat of his car and is keeping it as a souvenir.

The August meeting of the Women's Institute was in the town hall last Thursday. The ladies decided to serve lunch at the ball games to contribute to their funds. They also decided to hold a community night once a month commencing the third Thursday in September in the town hall. These will be advertised later.

Miss Mary Farr of Zephyr gave several selections on her piano-accordion which were much enjoyed. There was ample lunch for all with music and good singing. The evening was a big success and thanks to Mr. Leitch for his kindness in giving his home for this party.

Whitchurch Tax Rate Shows Small Increase

Despite the seemingly increased cost of services, plus better service demanded, the tax rate in the twp. of Whitchurch for 1948 will not be advanced seriously. The general rate is increased one and two-tenths mills for 1948 over the rate that prevailed in 1947. Council struck the new rate last week. The county rate is advanced three-tenths of a mill and the high school area rate is two mills. This is the first area levy and replaces a high school tax of 1.7 mills, an increase of three-tenths.

To those rates are added the public school trustees' levy which varies in the different school sections. Thus the overall increase in taxes (exclusive of trustee rates) is a mill and a half.

The secondary school rate was struck at two mills for that part of the twp. lying outside the Aurora school area, so that there will be a like tax for secondary education all over the twp. Next year the Stouffville-Markham-Whitchurch H.S. area will be in operation since it becomes effective January 1, 1949.

Deputy-Reeve Logan said he feared police costs were getting out of bounds. "I protest the mileage," said Mr. Logan. Aside from the lake areas, there is no more crime than last year, but police costs are much higher.

Reeve Evans said crime had to be stopped. "We get a lot of taxes from the lakes. In return we provide them roads and policing. We pay Chief Watts $2,250 per year, plus seven cents mileage," he said. Mileage account for July was under discussion. The clerk said it would cost more to turn policing over to the province.

Part Time Assistant

The reeve explained that Constable Mulholland, part time assistant, was engaged to assist in the busy seaon. He contacted the deputy reeve before calling on Mulholland, a retired Toronto officer living on the third con. He is on call at $6 a day plus car mileage.

The clerk said increased revenue would result from the present arrangements. He pointed out that receipts of $1,000 were collected to date from lake area licenses. No return from liquor fines had yet been made to the treasurer since the twp. passed a by-law and provided necessary policing that will entitle them to share in fines from breaches of the O.T.A., it was stated in answer to an enquiry from Councillor Timbers.

An account from Newmarket fire department for $135 was laid over. The account is a charge for answering a call to a fire at the Doner farm. The call should have been sent in to Aurora, it was stated, since they have a contract with the municipality. The reeve said the cost would have been $40 or $50 if the call for help had been directed to the right place.

On motion of Deputy-Reeve Logan and Councillor L. J. Harper, Stouffville veterans who are building a hall in the twp. were granted $25. This will meet payment of building permit and other tax which the twp. could not relieve the veterans from.

HAD TO MAKE DRAGS . . .

Apart from the boats ordered out by the county police, the volunteer searchers did their work without any hope of compensation. Livery operators contributing their big boats to the search included Ed Welch, Ivan Foster, Tom Stevenson, Harvey Fontaine and Fred Johnston. Their efforts were made at considerable financial sacrifice to themselves.

The Church of the Nazarene at Newmarket will assume as much of the cost of dragging that it can, according to Mr. Sparks.

At one time, the area in which the drowning took place was covered with boats manned by volunteers. When the lake was too rough for dragging, members of the Nazarene camp, assisted by others along the shore, searched the shores without success. Parties of volunteers from Newmarket assisted.

E. K. Olsen, manager of the Nazarene camp, directed efforts from there and the preparation of equipment, assisted by Mr. Baker.

As the lack of dragging equipment and life-saving facilities generally, became obvious following the drowning, there were expressions of growing indignation along the shore.

If my name sake, Golden Glow, is bad for hay fever, nobody suffering from that distressing malady will want to read my column for this is hay fever season and authorities say it is going to be particularly bad this year. But, oh how beautiful that flower is in our gardens. From where I write I can see clusters of it along the east fence with a background of lovely hollyhocks still flowering, but long past their best. I saw the most beautiful deep orange and black bird there yesterday but before I could get a really good view of it, the leafy lilac bush hid it and I did not get a second chance. Then today, I saw a tiny wild canary having a drink at the bird fountain.

You hear many bird notes, but the foliage is so thick you seldom see the birds unless they come down for a drink or a bath. For several days a few weeks ago I used to see a strange bird getting a bath and then drying itself off on the roof of the garage next door, but I could not identify it. Those scalaway robins keep my front steps looking terrible for they persist in eating the red berries on the honeysuckle bush beside the verandah. But it's the blackbirds that keep me entertained. Oh, but they must have well developed funny bones for they cut capers like a bunch of small boys.

There seems to be a perpetual feud between them and the robins. I put out some muffin crumbs the other day for Mrs. Sparrow and her babies and then I watched them through the kitchen window and how these babies did stuff themselves—or rather the mother bird did the stuffing! It was a miracle they did not burst!

Down To See The Digger

Last Tuesday I took time off to go and see the "digger" down at Fairey Lake. What a misnomer! You can't even call it the pond any more for again it is drained to allow this machine to work at the silt and sediment collected in such quantities in the bottom of the pond. It was a sight to see! The great arm with its bucket on the end picks up a load of the blackest, juiciest, muddy stuff you ever saw and drops it into a truck which carries it over to Widdifield Park. They have plenty of spectators, I can assure you!

I looked west up pond—and there were dozens of gulls flying about over the bulrushes. So I had to go and see them of course! I went along Eagle St. to what we used to call the Dutchman's Bay—on around to where the old Metropolitan track used to run. I went east and was amazed at the tangle of growth in that once charming little spot where the late Mr. Smith, former manager of the Office Specialty who lived there where Mrs. Bacque now lives, had made a little summer house on an island, connected to his lawn by a little rustic bridge. We used to often visit that delightful spot, especially as it was popular for garden parties. Didn't they used to call that place the Elms? I think so, for there are some most beautiful specimens there, if you recall.

Profusion Of Growth

Honestly, you'd not think it possible to see in the heart of our town such a tangle of vines, wild apple trees, choke cherries, cedars and heaps of other trees, small and large, that adorn the banks of the pond and the once charming basin called Dutchman's Bay. The bridge on the Metropolitan tracks is gone so I had to come back and I walked through beautiful, wild flowers, Queen Anne's lace, tansy with its odd, yellow, button-like flowers, yarrow, high white clover, golden rod, chicory or corn-cockle, that lovely blue flower, el campain, wild iris and other acquatic plants and others I can't recall at the moment, but above and beyond all else, bulrushes!

I saw plenty of king fishers and other small birds, but it was alive with gulls and other water fowl. I saw some wild ducks among the bulrushes and soldier black birds galore.

So, to top it off, I took a trip on the bus and went from Andrew St. to Connaught Gardens and back—and if you want to see lovely flowers, follow my example and take that trip! Newmarket really should be proud of her lovely gardens. Everywhere are flowers—even at all the factories. Don't take my word, go and see for yourself. But, on please—don't, don't look at the pond until once again "the waters cover the earth" as it says in the book of Genesis.

Back To The Pond

But to get back to the pond, where I started! You really do not have to stretch your imagination far to imagine all sorts of slimy monsters half buried in that black mud, with the heavy growth of bulrushes all around. We know there are huge snapping turtles there, for when the pond was drained a few weeks ago several of those huge creatures came up from below the dam to the waterworks lawn, trying, no doubt, to find their way back to their old home in the pond. You recall I told about the goldfish trying to climb up the dam.

How about a sea serpent scarce? Couldn't we get put on the map by inventing one and have a flaming headline in about Newmarket's sea serpent? We'd get a flock of tourists raiding our town. Well, they would find a nice spot for a picnic in Lion's park, so would not have come in vain. There are plenty of comfortable picnic tables available if they are only left alone. Why must whoever is responsible for damaging the benches destroy everything? They kept on throwing the splendid, solid, cement benches in the park by the dam into the pond, until the benches have had to be chained to the trees.

A Hitler decree permitted 40,000 posthumous marriages between slain German soldiers and their bereaved sweethearts, the dead soldier's steel helmet representing him at the ceremony.

Say you read it in the Newmarket Era and Express.

Garden Tips

A. A. REINKE

Organic matter greatly increases the available plant food in the soil. (chemical). The minerals in the soil must be in an available form before they are useful to the plant and the chemical action is greatly increased by the humus content.

Our gardens are generally subjected to a rather intensive cultivation program and the more the garden soil is cultivated the faster the organic matter is burned up. Of course, our best and most quickly available source is farm manure. This, if available, may be applied at the rate of 20-30 tons per acre per year. However, manures vary considerably in their composition and all are likely to require supplemental applications of fertilizer material to maintain a proper balance of plant food.

What I have said above is with the supposition that the garden is already naturally well drained, underlain with a natural bed of gravel, or has been artificially drained by means of 4"-tile laid to a good outlet.

Good root system cannot develop in poorly drained soils and without good root systems plants cannot make use of the plant food necessary for maximum yield. The increased aeration following the removal of excess soil moistures stimulates bacterial activity and oxidation processes which promote better growth and higher yields. It is said that the roots of a tomato plant will go down to a depth of 3'. Of course, the greater volume of the roots will be in the upper 6" of soil but some roots will go down through the subsoil if the hard pan has been broken up and this process is greatly assisted by the underdrainage system suggested above.

Here is another point to remember. When a green manure crop is plowed down, the soil is no poorer or no richer in plant food than it was before, unless that crop was alegume in which case some nitrogen will have been added through the nodules on the roots. What is important, however, is the fact that the roots and green matter of the crop plowed under provides a supply of humus which puts life into the soil and if this process is continued the fertility of that soil can be increased from year to year. This fertility may be supplemented by the addition of commercial plant food in the form of nitrogen, phosphorus or potash or any of the minor elements which may be required.

To find out what minerals are needed, a soil test should be made. Instructions as to the approved method of taking soil samples may be found on Page 53 of the booklet entitled "Recommendations for Soil Management and Use of Fertilizers" copies of which may be obtained from the Statistics and Publications Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.

Soil samples will be tested by the Soils Division at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, or at the Vineland Experimental Farm, Vineland Station. This analysis will also show the requirements as far as lime is concerned.

In conclusion, I would like to say that each crop whether it be a vegetable or flower crop has its own special requirements as far as plant foods are concerned and it is the successful gardener who can make a study of the needs of each type or group of plants and supply their needs that is in the final analysis the champion flower or vegetable grower in each district.

Finally may I repeat "Organic matter is the key to soil structure and soil structure is the key to yield."

Dog And Kids Visit Forks Of Credit

It seemed like a good idea to take a motor trip as a fillip to the week of holidays we had following the Liberal convention, so last Friday, the day cool and not too sunny, we loaded dog and kids into the car and set off for the Forks of the Credit. Stated thus, it sounds a reasonably easy undertaking. In actual fact, our departure had all the labor of launching a safari into darkest Africa, and we carried almost as much equipment as an American tourist about to brave the wilds of Muskoka. Most of what we carried was for the kids and was prompted by that almost constant worry of parents that it will be needed "just in case" junior becomes car sick, bored, hungry or answers nature's call somewhere along highway No. 9 without first hoisting the usual signals of distress. Happily, there was little need to demonstrate our foresight for the kids played on the back seat with their dolls and trucks and the dog slept comfortably on the floor while we rolled through some of the most pleasant countryside in Ontario.

We set a general course for the Caledon Hills by way of the Aurora sideroad to Schomberg and west on highway No. 9 to Orangeville, then south on No. 10. The roads were in excellent shape except for the stretch between Aurora and Schomberg where the road bed, while smooth, rocks the car with its swift ups and downs until you feel like you are in a canoe in the middle of a storm. No. 9, a hard-surfaced gravel road, was in excellent condition. It is an easy road to drive with its width and smoothness. It has had the benefit of considerable grading, cutting the crowns off the hills and reducing the depth of the valleys.

From York To Peel

Highway No. 9 runs out of York and into Peel county with no perceptible difference except for the change in the election signs which are still numerous on the telephone poles. The minister of agriculture, Hon. Thomas L. Kennedy, sits in the provincial house for Peel, and apparently felt quite safe because his election posters bore the simple slogan, "Vote for Tom Kennedy", without any further sales talk.

We entered the Caledon Hills proper by way of a gravel road west from Caledon, and after crossing three concessions, taking an extended jog between a stone fence, as per the instructions of a genial hotel operator at Caledon, we turned south on a narrow road which in two or three miles, led us into the leafy coolness of the Credit Valley. Now, there is a pleasant drive. The road drops from the valley's lip in a series of short, sharp descents followed by gentle grades, until it reaches the river which it follows to the eastern edge of the valley, and then returns due east to the highway.

Fishing From Roadside

We passed several fishermen who had driven beside the river until seeing what they believed a haunt of trout, they parked and went to work. We saw no fish, however. On the west side of the valley, there is the village of Bellefountain where a branch of the river has been damned and a pleasant park, with a suspension bridge, has a beautiful outlook over the valley. Three miles west of Bellefountain is Erin where we stopped for lunch.

Returning to the valley, we drove down to the river and stopped for a rest while the children launched twig boats destined for the East Indies by way of Port Credit and the St. Lawrence. We saw more fishermen wading up the tumbling stream and as we passed the Caledon Mountain Trout club (members only) on the way out, we felt rather sorry for the latter. What pleasure the "members only" got from fishing artificial ponds with their certainty of a catch, as compared to those free souls wading free water, is more than we can see. We reached No. 10 at the foot of the long ascent to the summit and we drove north with our heads on our shoulders watching the valley unfold as we climbed higher.

We kept to No. 9 on the way back, past Schomberg and onto the Glenville sideroad west of the marsh. The Glenville road had just been scraped and made easy driving past the south end of the marsh, across the Barrie highway, and into town. When paved, it will make an excellent east-west highway and should open new market areas for Newmarket.

The Office Cat Reports

Ginger Reflects Upon Literature

Our Joe is quite a poet, Joe the printer, I mean. He speaks in rhyming couplets with a smashing, withering couplet at the end. He sings, too.

I often listen to Joe's poems and songs when I work out in the shop sometimes. I work on one of the job presses, the little Gordon press. The reason I work on the little press is because one day the electric motor that turns its big wheel by a belt flew off its moorings and ran out the front door, down the street and into Fairey Lake. That's what that big dredge has been digging for down at the pond.

In the meantime, our foreman has rigged up a tread mill and I run the little press by walking on this darn tread. Slave labor you might say, but I threatened to report to the Humane Society if I didn't get free fish heads to eat three times a day.

While working on this job press, as I was saying, I see and hear a lot of Joe, the printer.

Joe is a kind of guy who can make a verse out of "pass the butter, please" but his favorite, which he is always reciting when his hands are at work, is Gray's "Energy in, a Country Church Yard" which he renders asunder.

"There's poetry in motion, Joe," I says to him one afternoon while watching the automatic press. "Yas," says Joe, "listen to that press going picketa poin, picketa poin, pfft. Someday I shall compose something and call it "The Song of the Heidelberg Press." Poetry in motion, hmm, seems to me I've read something about that but I don't remember where."

As an example of Joe's ability to write, I shall quote you one of his masterpieces. It has a style that could never be copied. It is an inimitable style, Joe's style, all his own:

"ODE TO A PRESS"
"EVEN AFTER A HARD DAY, WIFE IS STILL BOSS"

Home I go after a Thursday
dreary,
Still numb from press noise,
harassed and weary.
Like a vulture I fall on a meal that's delishus . . .
And spend the rest of the evening doing dishes.
(Unabridged)

There are some things about females which I never hope to understand. Let me refer specifically to one-half of a certain marital union, namely my dear Isabella.

With tolerance, I accept the fact that she reads all my personal mail; with bland equanimity, I face her at 2 a.m. after a poker game with the boys. I will go so far as to say that I am really the epitome of tolerance when it comes to personal relationships with Izzie, but when it comes to interference with my profession, I put my foot down hard, to myself.

As I entered the front office this morning, I heard a noisy discussion between Izzie and the boss in his office. Minutes later, a lighting fixture flew through a window and the boss scurried to the basement and hid behind some packing cases.

Imagine, she was trying to go over my head! It seems she doesn't like me writing about Henrietta Delrimple de Cadiz. A form of jealousy.

Isabella unfortunately became irate during the discussion; she scared the boss down into the bowels of the building by flailing him with her umbrella and then she stomped out of the office. Poor boss.

The matter has remained in a state of equilibrium, simmering.

Madsens Revive Folk Festival

Down Unionville way, a Danish couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Madsen, had a "folk festival" at their Cherry Hill Farm on Saturday with folk dancing, singing, instrumental music and group games whiling away the day and a bonfire at night winding up the festivities. Such activities are sometimes treated as "foreign notions" by the sturdy individualists around the county, but they have forgotten that their forefathers, regardless of origin, spent a lot of time doing the very thing the Madsens are seeking to revive.

The Madsens are a colorful pair. The editor met them in the pre-war years when there was only a little of the present interest in community recreation. They had come to a summer camp to give a demonstration of Danish folk dancing—square dancing, in so many words—and although greeted with some scepticism on their arrival, when they left, they had everyone dancing and thoroughly enjoying it.

Last year the Madsens trained and directed a group of 27 young people who represented Canada in the National Folk Festival at St. Louis. The Canadians attracted much attention and many contacts were made with fellow enthusiasts from throughout the United States.

The editor of the Stouffville Tribune has some interesting comments on spending money for children. They have too much, he suggests, and quoting from the Owen Sound Sun Times, he continues:

"The standard of living for young boys and girls has risen beyond all bounds. Pennies are things to be sneered at. Nickels draw no thanks at all, while even quarters are not met with any too much favor with many of our boys and girls. Many parents have impoverished themselves for their old age in trying to meet the demands of their boys and girls. Many other families are just unable to compete and the children are faced with a situation which is quite liable to twist their lives with envy.

"Those parents who make large handouts are much at fault in doing so. Perhaps they can well afford to. Perhaps again they cannot. But in passing our money 'as if it grew on trees' they are not only doing their own children a wrong, in giving them a false sense of the value of things, but they are making life difficult for other children and other parents.

"The weekly allowance idea is a splendid one, where the family income will permit it. But it should know restrictions. Many young people have formed the excellent habit of earning their own spending money. They and their parents are to be commended. Such a plan is character building and helpful in many ways."

How Many More Must Die?

The only piece of dragging equipment for public use from Beaverton to Miami on the south-east shore of Lake Simcoe is one six-foot drag. The friends of Alex Hill, drowned last Wednesday, discovered this when they prepared to search for his body. The equipment they used was either made by themselves or borrowed from Toronto. Thousands fish, or swim, or boat hourly on Lake Simcoe. Fatalities on the lake are a constant threat. And what precautions are taken by the authorities? One six-foot drag. Is there a more damning indictment of irresponsibility than this?

With the exception of boats ordered out on Wednesday and Thursday by the county police, at the expense of the county, dragging operations were done by volunteers. Professional boatmen forfeited the patronage of their customers, spent their own money for gas and oil, knowing they had no claim against county or municipal authorities for this public service. The plane which sighted the body was paid for privately after the county had refused to accept the cost.

Lake Simcoe is one of the largest summer resorts in Ontario. Yet along the south-east shore at least there is no form of administration on the water, no life-guard stations, no supervision of the thousands of craft which use the lake. Public launches are inspected by federal authorities but there is no policing of private craft. Boats for hire are not inspected for their safety. The ability of customers to handle themselves on the water is not questioned except on the initiative of the livery operators.

The question is: How long is this to last, this trust in luck and the willingness of private citizens to assume public duties without compensation, as a substitute for a proper life-guard service?

Here is a most pressing need for joint action by all municipalities bordering the lake. Not only are life-saving stations required where appropriate, but all craft on the lake should be licensed for sea-worthiness. A small license fee for each boat would finance this, or alternatively, a charge against lake properties. Surely the few dollars it would cost the individual are worth the guarantee of protection upon the water.

A coroner's verdict on another death on the water not long ago pointed out the lack of life-saving facilities. It was ignored. Now another death has underlined the same inadequacies. How many more deaths are necessary before there is action?

Not of National Calibre

Premier Drew is generally conceded the edge over the other possible candidates for the leadership of the Progressive Conservative party. He is the leader of the only Conservative government in Canada. He has two election victories under his belt. He is a strong fighter and a commanding presence in any gathering. He has, in fact, all the major requirements of Conservative leadership except a sense of Canadianism which is national in its scope.

Unfortunately for Col. Drew, he has limited his efforts to encouraging a concept of Canadianism which is uniquely his own. He has succeeded to the extent that Ontario has lost all feeling of unity with the rest of Canada. In dominion-provincial relations, it stands as a sovereign power, raised to that exalted plane at the expense of the other provinces. He would bring to the federal leadership of the party his record of racial feuding with Quebec, his stand on freight rates, his refusal to co-operate in dominion-provincial relations, his advocacy of Bay St. interests to the detriment of the rest of the country.

These disruptive tendencies scarcely fit him for national leadership. They do not command a large national following. To protect his self-esteem, he would be advised to withhold his name from the leadership race, and stick to his own backyard.

Common courtesy demands the dimming of lights as two cars approach each other on a highway at night. But nowhere is courtesy more lacking than on the highways. Something more effective is necessary before the hazard of bright lights on the highways is removed. Why couldn't there be legislation regulating the strength and focus of car lights? Such a law would no doubt be a nuisance with most makes of cars manufactured outside the province. But it would be a worthwhile nuisance if it would bring to an end that explanation common to every traffic court and which begins with "I was blinded by the lights of the oncoming car and couldn't see . . ."

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The History of Bogarttown

Bigger Than Newmarket By 1850

By ELMER STARR

The editor is indebted to Elmer Starr for his history of the "Hamlet of Bogarttown" which Mr. Starr completed after considerable research. The "History", too lengthy to be printed in one issue, is printed as a weekly series. This is the fifth of the series.

In the 60's of the 19th century a few of the deeply religious inhabitants felt the urge to do something for the so-called careless and indifferent, so a Sunday-school was started and was held in the schoolhouse and was designated as Bogarttown Union Sabbath school. It served young and old, rich and poor, wise and foolish, few or many (sometimes the attendance being in the lower 'teens and sometimes more than 150) for about three-quarters of a century.

Many of the names mentioned in the public school records also appear in those of the B.U.S.S.

And so from a small beginning of a few log cabins and a sawmill, Bogarttown grew and grew so rapidly that by 1850 she boasted more and better mills, more and better homes and residences than her rival village of Newmarket, and was doing a larger volume of business, but in 1857 the Canadian Northern Railway was built from Toronto north and passing through Newmarket gave that village a boost which surely put it on the map and gave Bogarttown a setback from which she never fully recovered though it made many attempts, the most spectacular being the obtaining of a post office about the year 1890 with Fred Brillinger as postmaster, but rural free delivery becoming common, Bogartown post office, like many of the little country post offices, passed into history.

Appendix A: Since writing the foregoing, information has come to hand from Charles M. Haight that the original schoolhouse of S.S. No. 3 was located on the south-east corner of his father's farm, being the farm now owned by George Hunt, lot 28, con. 3, Whitchurch. This schoolhouse was burned in 1856 but the writer has a vivid recollection of a part of the picket fence that surrounded the yard.

However, such was the effeciency of the school board and such the dispatch and thoroughness of the artisans and workmen of that day that a new building was erected and equipped that the school childen lost little if any of the school year, the new building being ready for use by the end of summer holidays, and so carefully did they build that when making excavations for a basement nearly 80 years later, when a land slide caused the foundation under the north end to cave in for the entire width of the building, the wall remained intact, not a brick being misplaced.

Appendix B: A letter from J. E. Smith, M.P. for North York, says: I have your inquiry regarding the late Senator Johnston who was born at Bogarttown in York county. I am sorry I have not much intimate knowledge of the late senator's background but the following is from the parliamentary guide and may be helpful to you: "Hon. John Frederick Johnston (Lake Centre, Sask.) born July 16, 1876, at Bogarttown, county of York, son of Joseph Johnston, Scotch, and S. Sissons, Canadian. Father owned and operated flour and lumber mills in counties of York and Simcoe; also large land and farmer. Educated at Stayner and Toronto, Ont. Married April 21, 1908, to Ida L., daughter of John T. Coleman, Bladworth, Sask. A farmer and breeder of purebred livestock. First nominated as Liberal candidate, Last Mountain constituency, 1914. First elected to House of Commons, general election, 1917. Re-elected 1921, 1925 and 1926. Named deputy speaker on motion of prime minister, Rt. Hon. Wm. L. Mackenzie King on December 14, 1926. Defeated in 1930, re-elected in 1935, defeated in 1940 general elections. Summoned to the 1935, defeated in 1940 general senate of Canada October 5, 1943; party politics, Liberal; religion, Presbyterian.

Editor's note: This is the conclusion of the History of the Hamlet of Bogarttown.

Plan Reception For New Premier

Prime Minister Mackenzie King has arranged to spend the next few days with his constituents, previous to leaving for England to attend the Imperial Conference, according to The Era and Express files of August 24, 1923. Until now, it has been impossible for him to visit his constituency ever since the House went into session at the beginning of the year. He had hoped to mingle with the people of North York at their various social functions and especially at the Sutton fair. A public reception will be tendered Mr. King at the town park at 7.30 on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Glover returned last Friday from a delightful trip down the St. Lawrence, including the Thousand Islands, Montreal, Quebec and Ste. Anne De Beaupre.

Ab Trivett carries his arm in a sling these days. One morning last week, while currying his horse, he accidently threw his shoulder out of joint. Apparently it does not take much of a trick to do it, although it causes considerable suffering.

Yonge St. is still closed from Thornhill to Bond Lake and motorists are required to use the Vaughan road between the two places.

A car carrying Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe, who were going to see a ball game at Orillia on Wednesday, skidded on some loose gravel and turned over on its side. Mr. Thorpe was the only one seriously injured; his leg was broken.

Since the arrival of the carload of stone for the new public school, the North York Marble Works has been putting in overtime on contracts which Mr. Moss has taken for the erection of the new school. Mr. Moss is also putting in the foundation stones and the stone pillars for the new iron fence at the cemetery.

From The Era and Express files, August 19, 1898

A lengthy jingle in a patent medicine almanac is being copied in some of the local papers. This is what it says about us: "Newmarket girls are neat and sweet, Aurora girls have large-sized feet".

The firm of Blizzard and Sibley has been dissolved and Mr. Blizzard will continue the business at Peppiatt's old stand. The premises have been greatly improved and the samples of new work are worthy of inspection.

Mr. Wm. Clarkson, Jr., son of William Clarkson of the third concession of King, left for Berlin, Germany, on Monday evening. Mr. Clarkson has gone to Berlin to spend three years in studying music.

A dog on Niagara St. that was shut out of its accustomed retreat kept the whole neighborhood awake a couple of nights.

Mr. Geo. Wood has decided to sell out all rigs in his paint shop and turn them into cash. These include new and second-hand buggies, democrats, etc., in good running order.

The tender of Mr. W. Caldwell for painting the model school building was accepted and he is at work. New maps and a globe have arrived for school opening.

At a small market last Saturday, butter was scarce and prices ranged from 16 to 18 cents per lb. Eggs were plentiful at ten cents per dozen and new potatoes sold at 15 and 25 cents per peck.

An exchange states that there are seven classes of people detrimental to a town: those who go out of town to do their trading; those who oppose improvements; those who prefer a quiet town to one of push and business; those who think they can do business slyly without advertising; those who deride public spirited men; those who oppose public enterprise that does not happen to benefit them and those who seek to injure the credit of an individual.

IN MEMORIAM

Morris—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Wm. Morris, who passed away, August 19, 1941.
The depths of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.
Always remembered by wife and family.

Shubert—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Per Shubert, who passed away August 21, 1944.
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever dear;
Time takes away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.
Always remembered by his wife Alno.

Farewell dear father, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A loving father kind and true,
No one on earth I'll find like you.
Sadly missed by his daughter Karen.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear mother, Florence Lilian, who passed away August 19, 1940.
Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile;
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of the other
I know He said "Well done, dear mother."
Ever remembered by daughter Doris and son-in-law Charlie.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear mother, Florence Lilian, who passed away August 19, 1940.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break but all in vain:
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never—
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Ever remembered by daughter Nellie and son-in-law Tom.

Sedore—In loving memory of our dear mother, Florence Sedore, who passed away August 19, 1940.
A wonderful mother, woman and aid,
One who was better God never made;
A wonderful worker, loyal and true,
One in a million, that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright.
Loved by your friends and all you knew—
A wonderful mother, that, mother, was you.
Ever remembered by her son, Bill, and daughter-in-law, Eva.

Sedore—In loving memory of a dear mother, Florence Sedore, who passed away August 19, 1940.
Eight years have come and gone
Since one we loved so well,
Was taken from our home on earth
With Jesus Christ to dwell.
The flowers we place upon her grave
May wither and decay;
But the love for her who sleeps beneath
Shall never fade away.
Sadly missed by daughter Mary, son-in-law Dave and grandson Donald.

Tansley—In loving memory of Barney Tansley, who passed away August 22, 1945.
Three years have passed, dear Barney,
Since you were called away.
How well do we remember
That sad and weary day.
He bade no one a last farewell,
He said goodbye to none.
The heavenly gates were open wide;
A loving voice said "Come".
But some sweet day we'll meet again,
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In heaven, that happy life.
No pen can write, no tongue can tell
My sad and bitter loss,
But God alone has helped so well
To bear my heavy cross.
My life cannot tell how I miss you.
My heart cannot tell what to say.
God alone knows how I miss you
In a home that is lonesome today.
Sadly missed by his wife, Matilda Tansley.

Rain Clouds Hopes Of Semi-Finals Win

Last Tuesday night's abundance of dew wound up our bantam baseball team's chances of taking the third and deciding tilt in their series with Stouffville. When the flood gates were opened, causing the game to be called, our mites were leading 11-9. That was at the start of the seventh and final frame. They needed only three outs. Now they have to start all over again in a new game. This is likely to go to the Aurora diamond for settling.

To bring you up to date on the situation, at Stouffville last Friday, the two-of-three series opened. Our bantams dropped an 11-5 decision. Coach Francis Hollingsworth elected to send Karl Ball to the mound for our forces. Stouffville countered with "Killer" Linton. It was a good hurling duel at that. Ball struck out ten allowing five hits, Linton sent eight of our batters down swinging and gave up but four hits. An outfield error was the deciding blow. It gave Stouffville four runs as the bases were fully populated at the time. Jackie Mills, the smallest of the mites, brought a round of cheers with a hit in his pinch-hitting role.

Monday Stouffville came to town and went back home on the short end of a 13-7 count. It was Karl Ball on the hill-top. He made this one a winning effort. Stouffville called on the services of three moundsmen, Bill Murphy, "Killer" Linton and Dunc. McGregor. All the Newmarket lads had a hand in their free swinging victory, Wayne Robinson taking the bows with two triples and a double. Karl Ball helped his own cause with some timely bingles. Stouffville chalked up all their runs in the first three chapters, after that they didn't have a look in. Newmarket line-up: R. Broadbent ss, G. Morton rf, K. Burke c, K. Ball p, W. Robinson p and lf, L. Grainger 2b, J. Staley cf, A. Attwell 3b, J. Hugo 1b, L. VanZant rf, J. Mills ss, R. Forhan ss.

The Rod and Gun Club was entertainend at Bert Morrison's cottage following the club's fishing derby at Lake Simcoe August 9. Refreshments, tall and short stories (predominantly tall), were the features of the evening. Bill Hill hauled in a five and five-eighths pound pike while Ernie Peters reeled in a three and three-eighths pounder during the derby.

The club has been attracted by the Fishing Derby sponsored by Mr. Ash at Lake Wilcox during the month of August and is going to try its luck August 23. The trip was cancelled for last Monday. All club members are requested to be at the Alexander Muir school grounds on Monday at 6 p.m. where cars will transport them to Lake Wilcox.

Mr. Ash is presenting two large trophies to the fishermen catching the largest pike or bass during the month.

News 'n' Views

By George Haskett

We must have had our crystal ball upside down last week. We jinxed about everybody by calling them to win. It was a bad Thursday all around for the Newmarket ball teams. After talking about "that winning habit that we all enjoy" as supplied by our ladies' team, they promptly had their winning streak stopped by Midland 10-5. They made a comeback Monday, of course, winning there 15-14. We put the lacrosse team behind the well known eight ball—no novelty to them. The red and whites lost 13-3 to the Indians. Our bantam baseballers, making their premier showing at Stouffville, lost 11-5. The only ray of sunshine was provided by Ross Goheen's midget softball stars. They eased the gloom with a 19-18 win over Aurora's South End Kids in the shade of the S.S. school house. We're not putting the damper on anybody this week by calling them to win. Just go out and win, on your own.

North Yonge softball. Here, here. Secretary Harold Rogers of the North Yonge league has the semi-finals launched and launched well, we might say, for the Vets. They hit the winning trail to Langstaff Tuesday evening to take The Staff in the opener 5-0, "Joint" McComb being really hot. The Andrew St. flinger always seems to be hitting it up on all cylinders as soon as play-offs are mentioned. The second game goes here tonight. The Vets can win it with a victory. The third "to do" goes to Aurora Friday night if required. The winner starts the finals with Aurora next Tuesday.

Midget baseball: The bill-of-fare to be served up by our Lions will find Bill Haskett's midgets locked in a struggle with Weston at Pantry Park Saturday, Aug. 21, at 2.30. Let's boost our kids. Second game goes at Gibson Park, Weston, a week Saturday.

Bantam baseball: There's trouble brewing. Latest information to hand—haven't the complete details at this time—is that Newmarket bantams are out of the North York league playdowns. At present they're even with Stouffville in a series ordered by the league. It's one game each. In fact our mites all but had the game tucked away Tuesday night but the rain intervened as they led 11-9. Certainly a full explanation is due the club backers and ball fans from the league headquarters. We'll let it rest there for the time being.

What Results From Defective Eyes?

No one knows what may result. It may be this, that or the other thing. It may be two or more combined ills. No one knows. But it is known that removing the cause dispels the effect. So it often happens that glasses do more than correct the errors of vision. While you are our patient your eyes are our only care and we only use the famous Corectal wide vision lenses.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Beth, ten years old, was born with cerebral paralysis of a serious spastic variety, yet, is proving an apt pupil.

Beth has had to learn everything the hard way. Fortunately for Beth, her parents were endowed with considerable common sense. They didn't overprotect her; neither did they neglect or discard her. They loved her unselfishly and wanted to do everything that was best for their daughter's happiness. They decided early that she should be helped to do for herself as preparation for independence in later life. With that one thought in mind, they helped her, showing her little things to do, then helping and encouraging her to do them herself. Working with their daughter developed patience within themselves as well as within their daughter, besides allowing them to understand her as an individual with definite possibilities, if given an opportunity.

By the time Beth was eight years old, she had learned to feed herself, undress completely, partially dress, bathe and walk alone despite her crippled condition. Beth had great difficulty with speech because she couldn't raise her spastic tongue from the roof of her mouth.

Despite Beth's almost miraculous progress, there was no place for her in the regular classroom, because of her retarded condition. However, she was admitted to a special speech clinic and was provided with a tutor at home to help her learn those things which her parents were not qualified to teach her.

Beth's parents had done such an excellent job of proving to Beth that she could do so many things herself that she wasn't actually aware that she had limitations. It had been a struggle learning to do everything she had learned but the important factor in her mind was that she could do everything if she tried long enough.

Pride of achievement is a strong incentive and Beth glories in it. She is always eager to master something new.

More than anything else just now, Beth, at ten years of age, wants to talk so everyone can understand her. Her speech teacher has spent extra hours with her because she is so eager to talk and tries so hard. Beth has learned to raise her tongue by means of a spatula to obtain the sounds that require tongue and upper mouth contact. She spends most of her free time practicing reading aloud by means of her little spatula.

Little souls such as Beth are not to be pitied, but rather to be congratulated on their good fortune. Pity may well be saved for that great mass of special children, far less severely handicapped, who aren't given the advantages of the training they must have in order to lead self-respecting, useful and independent lives within their community.

WILLOW BEACH GIRL WED IN ST. GEORGE'S

St. George's Anglican church, Sibbald's Pt., was the setting last Saturday afternoon, August 7, for the marriage of Marilyn Phyllis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Sedore, Willow Beach, to Mr. Donald Paul Magee, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magee, Toronto. Rev. W. I. D. Smith, rector, performed the ceremony with Mrs. M. O. Tremayne at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a sleeveless gown of white marquisette over nylon made with a round neckline and ballerina skirt. She wore a white straw picture hat with net veil and carried a nosegay of white flowers. Her only attendant was Miss Ruth Brooks, Sutton, as bridesmaid. She chose a frock of pale blue bengaline with a halo hat of pink flowers and carried a nosegay of pink flowers. Mr. Earl Magee, brother of the groom, was best man and Mr. Chas. Thornton was usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Cedar Brae Lodge, Willow Beach, where Mrs. Sedore received the guests wearing a cinnamon brown silk jersey frock with a corsage of yellow gladioli, assisted by the groom's mother in a pale grey printed crepe dress with a corsage of white gladioli. For going away the bride donned a pale green faille suit and a paddy green shortie coat with accessories to match. The young couple will take up residence in Toronto in the fall.

WED AT MAPLE

The wedding of Marjorie Brown Bailey, daughter of Mrs. Bailey and the late George William Bailey, and Lorne Arthur Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wells, all of Maple, was held recently in Maple United church.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

SPEECHES

If you are a speech and editorial addict as I am, some of them will be tucked away in your memory scrap book to be taken out and reviewed occasionally. There are speeches we only know by reading, like Lincoln's Gettysburg address with its clarion call to freedom and equality—an inspiration to all people for all time.

There was the farewell speech of Edward VIII with its curious mixture of pathos, apology and defiance—the battle between love and duty—the romantic touch of giving up a throne and an empire's love and devotion for the love of a woman, and the half difiant, half apologetic touch as the man triumphed over the king. None of us will ever forget Churchill as he told the world that Britain would fight on her beaches, in her streets and in her homes before she would bow the knee to Hitler and promised his fellow Britains only blood an sweat and tears. Many of us were in tears as we listened but in every true heart not alone in Britain, but in the empire was born a grim determination that triumphed over seemingly insuperable obstacles to a victorious finish.

Roosevelt's War Speech

I think, too, that none of us will forget Roosevelt's unforgettable voice as he told his people that they were at war. One felt how deeply the tragedy was his own as one listened to a voice that could be so warmly sympathetic, so human where warmth was called for, so sternly cold where determination was inevitable.

And one remembers with a feeling of gratitude the talks of our own beloved King to his people when he told us to put our hands into God's hand and so be led aright. And now we have had a speech by a Canadian that will long be remembered—not so much for its content as for its significance.

There are some figures like General Smuts and Mackenzie King that stand as bulwarks of the commonwealth and when they retire one feels a sense of loss, of almost fear. Their knowledge of world events—their sources and their significance—is so great that one dreads the untried hand at the helm.

Didn't Always Agree

There were many times when my views on domestic policy were diametrically opposed to those of Mr. King which of course would not have disturbed him had he known. There were times when I felt our whole domestic economy cried out against what I thought was his misuse of power and opportunity, but when it came to foreign policy one felt the sure move of the experienced statesman at every crisis.

What struck me about his speech was what he did not say—its implication of a lonely man giving up the great love of his life—the voluntary relinquishing of an absorbing passion for Canada, for the commonwealth that was his life. There have been greater men than Mr. King and greater speeches than his, for he lacked the warmth of Mr. Roosevelt and the color and fire of Mr. Churchill, but no thinking person can deny him a niche in the hall of great men, for he had a far-sightedness, a sanity that seemed to at times be lacking in those who guide our destinies.

We can only hope that for many years to come. Mr. King will have a voice in our foreign policy, for I am sure no voice is better fitted to be heard in a world where nations are trying without too much success to adjust themselves to conditions undreamed of even 25 years ago.

It's wonderful to live in a democracy where one can write of one's leaders as one sees them—do we appreciate this? I wonder.

MARK 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. James Miller, Port Arthur, sister of Mrs. E. Peat, Newmarket, and Mr. Miller recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at Port Arthur where they have lived since 1905. Mr. Miller is a bricklayer by trade and has been employed in the erection of many of what are now landmarks in Port Arthur. Almost 100 friends visited the couple on their anniversary. The couple have one son and three daughters, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Homemakers' Exchange

Tomatoes are not only valuable as a food but are enjoyed as an appetizer, vegetable, salad, a relish and even as a jam. For this reason plan to store away as many canned tomatoes as possible for winter use. Tomatoes may be packed in glass sealers or tin cans. It is wise to fill sealers only to within ¼-inch of the top. This will prevent loss of liquid during processing and assure a good seal. Tin cans may be filled to within ¼-inch of the top. There are three satisfactory methods for canning tomatoes. Each has its good points. Tomatoes, packed by the cold pack method, retain their shape well and may even be used as a special treat in winter salads. The juice, when drained off, may be used as an appetizer or in soup.

Cold Pack Method: Blanch tomatoes 15-60 seconds, cold dip, remove stem end and peel. Pck. Add 1 tsp. salt per quart before adding liquid. Cover with hot tomato juice, leaving headspace. (This juice is made from broken or irregular tomatoes cut into pieces, heated to extract the juice and then strained.) Process in boiling water bath, pints or 20-oz. cans 25 minutes; quarts or 28-oz. cans 30 minutes, or glass sealers may be processed in a thermostatically controlled oven at 270 degrees; pints 35 minutes and quarts 40 minutes. Tin cans should never be processed in the oven.

Solid pack and hot pack methods are both quick and easy, but the tomatoes are likely to be quite broken and juicy. Tomatoes, packed by either of these methods, are excellent for general use where there is no special need for having whole tomatoes.

Solid pack method: Prepare as for cold pack method. Quarter or leave whole. Pack, pressing down until tomatoes are covered with their own juice, leaving headspace. Add 1 tsp. salt per quart. Process in the boiling water bath, pints 30 minutes, quarts 35 minutes. The oven is not recommended for this method since it takes too long for the dry heat to penetrate to the centre of the sealers.

Hot pack method: Prepare as for cold pack method. Quarter or leave whole. Heat to boiling point in a preserving kettle. Pack hot, leaving headspace. Add 1 tsp. salt for each quart. Process in the boiling water bath, pints, quarts, 20-oz. or 28-oz. can 15 minutes. Glass sealers may be processed in a thermostatically controlled oven at 275 degrees, pints 20 minutes, quarts 30 minutes. Tin cans must never be processed in the oven.

TOMATO JUICE

Hot pack method: Wash tomatoes, remove core, cut into pieces but do not peel. Bring to boil and boil covered 5 minutes. Bring juice to boiling point. Pour into containers, leaving headspace. Add 1 tsp. salt per quart. Process sealers or cans 15 minutes in the boiling water bath. Glass sealers may be processed in a thermostatically controlled oven at 275 degrees for 20 minutes. Tin cans must never be processed in the oven.

GRANDDAUGHTER WED IN BIGGAR

The United church at Biggar, Sask., was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Noreen Lillian, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Baker, Springwater, became the bride of Peter John, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Guenther, also of Springwater. Rev. L. Sanders officiated. The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker, Newmarket.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white satin gown featuring a full peplum sweetheart neckline and puff sleeves. A long veil fell from a pearl encrusted headdress. She carried a bouquet of red roses and fern.

Acting as bridesmaid was Miss Joyce Ries, Springwater, who chose a gown of blue sheer, with a matching chapel veil. She carried red carnations.

Cornelius Guenther was his brother's best man. Ushers were Abe Guenther and Francis Hayes.

Soloist was Mary Anne Hayes and Mrs. J. Rutherford played suitable music throughout the ceremony.

The bride's mother chose a blue and black figured crepe afternoon dress, with black accessories, and the mother of the groom wore a blue lace dress with white accessories, both wore corsages of pink roses.

For travelling the bride changed to a blue dressmaker suit with pink accessories. The young couple will be at home at 124 Ave. C. South, in Saskatoon.

Oust Stouffville, Midgets Face Weston

By GEORGE HASKETT, JR.

With a revamped lineup staring him in the face at game time — some of his regulars being scared away by the threatening showers—Manager Bill Haskett of the Lions sent a surprise nominee to the hill-top against Stouffville Wednesday, by name of Harold Stevenson, an Aurora lad brought up by Newmarket for the final series.

"Stevie" proceeded to limit the visiting brigade to six hits and two runs. The Lions found "Ducky" Davis quite a puzzle, strictly on the beam for that matter. Davis pitched his best game of the series and like "Stevie," only allowed six hits, from which the Lions manufactured four runs and enough to take the verdict. There's no doubt, by long odds it was the best game of the series.

Jerry Hugo tripled to start the first run on its way in the third. Harold Stevenson pumped out a single to send his mate capering home. The Lions got an unearned run in the fourth as "Ortie" Thoms was put aboard when one of the Davis' heaves hit him. Thoms promptly slipped around to the three-quarter pole on the next two pitches and was home free with run number two on a passed ball.

Stouffville made an effort to get themselves back into a tie with the Lions in the sixth, Mickey Redshaw doubling down the third base line, and a steal and passed ball got him home. Derek Chadwick, Stouffville's most dangerous clouter in the series, dished up a four-base hit. That tied it up in the seventh.

The Lions went to bat in the last of the seventh to change that state of affairs. They did just that too. Jerry Hugo walked, Alvin McKnight doubled into left field and pitcher Harold Stevenson made sure of his winning with a triple into centre field. That wrapped up the old ball game right there. Three straight over Stouffville is mighty fine work by our laddies. Bring on Weston, the next stop in the O.B.A. trail.

Newmarket Vets Win Queensville Tournament

Newmarket Vets, always a great tournament team, came back from Queensville last Saturday with the jack pot in the softball tournament at the first annual sports day there. The softball experts didn't give the Vets much of a chance in the final against Queensville. Queensville sent their import—Tommie Stewart, a star in Toronto's Beaches League — to the hill. The Vets proceeded to win a 3-1 victory with "Joint" McComb firing great ball in the Vets' cause.

The Vets earned their way into the finals with an 18-2 win over Brownhill. Keswick was their next victim by a 8-1 count. Queensville eliminated Moe Walsh's Aurora contingent 4-0 in their first round. Six teams were entered, Queensville, Aurora, Keswick, Brownhill, Miami Beach and Newmarket. The Newmarket team was Chuck VanZant c, "Joint" McComb p, M. McNulty 1b, C Ward 2b, D. Eves ss, J. Tunney 3b, N. Legge, S. Evans and F. Dillman, outfield.

NORTH YONGE PLAY-OFFS

Play-off dates as announced Monday for the North Yonge league by secretary Harold Rogers are as follows: August 19, Langstaff vs. Newmarket (second game). If a third game is needed in the Langstaff vs. Newmarket series, it will be played in Aurora on August 20. The final series will be between Aurora which finished in first place with a 7-3 record on the season, and the winner of Langstaff vs. Newmarket. The dates for this series are: August 24, at Aurora; August 26, Aurora at Langstaff or Newmarket; August 28, at Aurora—if Langstaff—game will be played in the afternoon at 3 p.m.—if Newmarket—at 7 p.m.; August 31, Aurora at Langstaff or Newmarket; September 2, at Aurora, if necessary.

Newmarket Ladies Win Provincial Opener

Split With Midland To Top League

That crucial series with Midland Parksides didn't change things one bit. Everything is right back where it started from. Newmarket ladies are still on top of the league and there to stay if our figuring is on the up and up. After disappointing a host of their home fans last Thursday when the local lassies lost 10-5 to the Parksides, they made amends Monday. They stepped into Midland and chalked up a thrilling 15-14 victory.

MIDLAND WIN HERE

Getting back to Thursday. The visiting Parksides made one big innings speak for them when they wrote eight runs into the record book. This, along with singles in the third and sixth, were enough to insure them a 10-5 win. It wasn't one of our squad's "best nights". They couldn't put their hits together at the right time. They racked up single runs in the first, third, fourth, fifth and sixth for their total. At that, they left ten on the base paths which indicates the lack of clutch hitting. They hit 11 safeties, Midland, boasted 12.

That free swinging attack in the second by the invaders lifted Betty VanZant from the mound with Edith Dow taking over. Edith limited Midland to two runs.

The fans got a kick out of centre fielder Lois Manning's single, which she promptly turned into a home run after Midland infield tossed the ball helter-skelter. Catcher Mona Dean was the only extra base hitter for the locals with a double.

WE WIN THERE

The series swung to Midland Monday. Right from the start it was evident both teams had their hitting shoes along. Newmarket sent up 11 batters in that initial frame for a five-run total. Margaret Arnold's double set the stage for a marker in the second as Mary Osborne followed with a hit. The red squad gained another two in the third, Edith Dow dropping down a perfect bunt, Lois Manning singling and both runners registering on Margaret Arnold's hard smash down the middle.

What looked like a comfortable margin faded but fast as Midland tied it 8-8 in the third. The Parksides went into a temporary lead with two-run production in the fourth. In the fifth the Courtney-VanZant crew opened up the flood gates. They put together four hits and an equal number of errors by the Midlanders to record six runs. Edna McGrath struck a mighty important blow with a three-base effort with the bases fully populated. Mona Dean slipped over the plate for a run in the sixth to wind up the Newmarket scoring at 15. Midland cut down the lead with a lone run in the fifth. Edith Dow came in in the final frame to halt them at three runs, one short of tying up the fray.

Coach Chuck VanZant sent Margaret Arnold to the mound but she went out in favor of Betty VanZant after serving three batters. Edith Dow went in in the sixth to stop a threatening Midland rally. Lois Manning, with Phyl McInnis sidelined with a broken finger, took over the lead-off spot in the batting order and went on a four-for-five hitting attack. Lois made three smart outfield catches too. Marg Arnold crowded her teammate for swinging honors with three, followed by Mary Osborne and Edith Dow with two apiece.

Bantams Get Boot - Why?

By GEORGE HASKETT, JR.

Bounced right out of the play-offs. That's what happened to our bantam baseball team. Why? 'Tis said because of no certificates in the hands of the North York Lions Baseball League. This is the word Coach Frank Hollingsworth received in a telephone conversation with president Len Simmons of the North York League at 11 p.m. Tuesday. But first let's get the picture to date. Newmarket started a two-of-three series with Stouffville for the right to meet Markham for the bantam crown. They lose the first, win the second and the third and deciding game is halted by rain with "our gaffers" in the lead 11-9.

The Newmarket bantam team was formed in the latter part of July. It came as an offshoot of the Lions summer program. An entry fee was posted and accepted by the North York League which is affiliated with the O.B.A. As yet no certificates have reached the hands of the local club. Now here's the pay-off. Stouffville, from our latest information gleaned from local sources, came into the picture after our own team. They are being allowed to contest the group title with Markham. We'll stand corrected if we are wrong about this. The Stouffville certificates, the local team are sure, weren't in the hands of the league on or before July 15, the last signing date allowed. Why kick Newmarket bantams out and not Stouffville? That's a poser. Personally, we haven't any axe to grind with the North York Ball League but the fans and backers of the Newmarket club, we feel, are entitled to a full explanation.

Vets Take Opener 5-0 Play 'Staff Tonight

By GEORGE HASKETT, JR.

The Vets moved into a one-game lead in the semi-finals of the North Yonge softball league Tuesday. Behind the six-hit tossing of their ace pitcher, "Joint" McComb, the Vets shut out Bill Bowen and his Langstaff mates 5-0. "Joint" McComb kept the six hits allowed "The Staff" well scattered and they failed to count a single run.

Newmarket scored its first two runs in the opening chapter. Harvey Gibney, first up, worked Bill Bowen for a walk, Normie Legge promptly came through with a safety, both runners putting themselves in a scoring position with some hot foot base stealing. Joe Tunney obliged with a ringing double to plate them both.

The Vets chilled Langstaff with a three-run production in the third to wind up the scoring. It was started by Bus Carter, playing left field. He poked out a neat single. "Joint" McComb slammed out a round-tripper to put Carter across and record his own run. That was a hit in any park as the old apple banged up against the buildings in centre field. Joe Tunney followed with his second double of the battle. When Langstaff's centre-fielder Roy Russell let the ball go through his legs Joe finished the journey around to the pay station for the Vets fifth and final tally.

Only two of "The Staff" hitters found McComb's offerings to their liking. They were "Hats" Curtis and Larry Lake. Both got two hits apiece. Catcher "Chuck" VanZant and "Joint" McComb didn't give the Yonge Street boys' leading hitter, Pitcher Bill Bowen, a chance to demonstrate his batting power. They walked him three times and he went down swinging in his other appearance. McComb rang up ten strike-outs, Bill Bowen nine.

Catcher Chuck VanZant, shortstopper Ken Tupling and third sacker Joe Tunney found time to bang out a pair of bingles each. The Vets played a strong fielding game, being called for but one error.

Tonight the teams clash here in the second game.

The Newmarket ladies' softball club won the first game of the provincial semi-finals by defeating Port Credit 12-6 last night in a game that was disturbed by occasional showers. The girls meet the same team next Saturday at Port Credit. The town ladies got 15 hits, two errors and the visitors six runs, eight hits and two errors.

Newmarket took four in the first, seven in the second and one in the third, while the visitors took one in the third, three in the fifth, one in the sixth and one in the seventh. Mary Ellen McInnis and Edith Dow had three hits apiece for the home town and Costello, third sacker for the visitors, had two hits. Both teams showed good fielding.

Midget Softballers Keep Win Streak Intact

Ross Goheen and his Shooting Stars midget softball team scored another win Thursday evening. In a close battle they eased out a 19-18 win over Aurora's South End Kids at the S.S. school diamond. The locals had to do it the hard way using an error that put Doug Doner on the base paths and Walter Cain's triple in the final frame to plate the winner.

Newmarket used up all their available pitching material sending three up to share the burden, John DeLaHaye, Ted Taylor and Doug Doner. Aurora was content to let Ed Eveleigh carry the brunt of the hurling duties.

Coach Ross Goheen is trying to make it a clean sweep of the district. His lads were hosts to Sharon Monday evening. They romped to a 22-3 win over the Harvesters. "Ding" Mair tossed up the assortment for the winners, John Steadman and Ron Coveney sparking the hit parade.

Newmarket line-up: W. Mair p, D. Doner ss, W. Cain 3b, W. Lund 3b, J. DeLaHaye 2b, J. Steadman c, K. Burke 1b, D. Brice cf, R. Coveney rf, B. Hodgins lf, J. Cain ss.

Astronomical Scores In Hoffman League

The Hoffman factory league is in full flight. Playing most of their games at the fair grounds, the teams are chalking up some amazing scores, if their adding machines are correct, and we have no reason to believe otherwise. Last Thursday Hank VanZant's Drill Twisters landed with a thud on the group leading and undefeated Herd to pile up a 33-12 victory. Bob Murray got the call for the winning pitcher with Ivan Ruddock being on the losing end.

Last Tuesday Captain (the first time he ever was higher than a sergeant) "Ceegars" McDonald led his Ramblers to a 29-24 victory over VanZant's Drill Twisters. "Ceegars" used three hurlers, Bob Benville, Morris Crowder and Jack Boag, to fashion the victory. Bob Murray toiled the route for the Twisters.

Here's the league standing:

	W	L	Pts.
McLean "Herd"	2	1	4
McDonald "Ramblers"	1	1	2
VanZant "Drill Twisters"	1	2	2

Lions Midgets Drop Exhibition Tilt 5-3

The Lions midget baseballers made it a mighty interesting evening for Markham juveniles at Pantry Park last Friday before going under by a 5-3 margin. This was an exhibition fixture arranged with the huskier and older visitors before sailing into the O.B.A. midget playdowns against Weston this coming Saturday.

Doug James, coach of the Markham side, had his lads put across a run in the second to start the ball rolling. They upped their count with four in the third to go into a five-run lead. Jerry Simmons, playing second base, lofted a towering home-run into left field in the fourth—it landed well over on the infield of the softball diamond with Don Duncan on the runways to put "our gang" back in the hunt. Third sacker Don Duncan cantered across the plate in the sixth to give the visitors something to think about.

It was a good game of ball with a good following on hand to see the teams go through their paces. Ortie Thoms served up the old apple for the "Rond Laddies" with Bob Ringwood on the visitors' mound.

HERE AND THERE AROUND THE COMMUNITY

Fight inflation, say boxer Bill Hadfield and master showman Les Beazer. Both were on the "What's your beef?" program of Aurora Legion and scored a hit with the crowd. Brother Beazer has just phoned to say that prices at Hamburger Heaven will continue as is, despite a rise in the price of beef and threatened rises in other commodities. "I can beat higher prices and so can the public," sez Les. Won't be too long until the politicos hit the federal phase of politics and mebbe they'd be wise to recall that action now might be remembered better than promises of what will be done in the future.

Frankie Sullivan, Richmond Hill, who used to play junior hockey in the local group and then moved up with De La Salle Oaklands and Oshawa Gens, will receive a trial with Toronto Leafs this fall. He'll be farmed elsewhere, but a good year in the minors might mean promotion. Ronnie Rowe, ex-Markham junior puckchaser, is being counted upon for a regular berth with New York Rangers this winter. Rowe is one of the few pro athletes who participate in rugged summer sports during the summer and believe it or not, soccer comes under that head. Boris Tipoff, another ex-Markham junior, will be seen on the backfield for Hamilton Tigers of the O.R.F.U. senior series. He's been with Beaches, Indians and Argos in other years. On the rugby horizon we note that promoter John Stuart has accompanied his Beaches-Indians teams to the west where Teddy Reeves has them playing good ball. You football fans who intend to catch some of the Hamilton Wildcat games should remember that Chart Holmes, ex-Newmarket sports promoter, is one of team's top executives. Wildcats are in the big four this season and we hope to catch a few of their games.

Jack Offord and the lads from the Aurora Cycling club are busy these days pacing themselves towards the Ontario championships at Oshawa on September 6 and the big Thanksgiving road race to be held in Aurora. Right now Billy McClenny leads the parade in points for the Dawson trophy followed by Cliff Heath, Ned Skead and Clipp Chapman. Offord is mighty enthusiastic over his present crop of riders. The club's objective is to keep together, a group who will carry on over the years and therefore quality rather than quantity is stressed. Fifteen-year-old Ross Collins right now shapes up as the find of the season and except for a broken chain, he would have finished in the money in the two-mile race last Saturday. Inexperience cost him ground in the five-mile.

Schomberg, under dynamic Bob Moody and Glad Lloyd, are again seeking rural mushball honors and are meeting Flesherton in the first round. It's Greenbank vs. Goodwood in the finals of the Uxbridge-Stouffville league. Greenbank imported a few players from Port Perry for their series with George Allison's Stouffville club and bumped off the league leaders. Goodwood handled Junior Farmers with ease. House of David baseball club played Barrie on Monday at Barrie and attracted a big house. It's an attraction that would draw in these parts next summer. Ewart Bagg, Stouffville southpaw, is a pretty fair track and field man. Bagg went 44 feet in the hop-step-and-jump at the Olympic trials in Montreal to finish second. He's a member of Toronto Varsity track team, too.

Leonard Simmons, head man of district baseball, points out that in his recent trip through the northern lake states, Manitoba and northern Ontario he found 60 cents to be the average charge for seeing baseball, including junior and minor games. Quite a difference from North York. At Dresden he reports an all-girls' baseball team is operating and playing sparkling ball against similar clubs and even some minor boys' teams. Simmons is not taking lightly the junior series with Sutton West that the Aurora boys face. Most of the Sutton kids have been playing in intermediate company all season and they have high class coaching and enthusiasm, all of which adds up to a close series.

Don't forget those softball finals starting next week with Mo "I may be wrong but I think your're wonderfull" Walsh leading his Aurora nine against ? ? ? Norm Bagnell, the fastball hurler from Gibson park and other points, is expected to toe the rubber for Aurora in the series. So far Bagnell has not been stopped locally and with that in mind, Walsh and his buddies are slight favorites for the Joe Spillette trophy. That 7.30 starting, however, is too late at this time of the year. There'll be some committee room arguments because of it or we miss our guess. Prexy May and secretary Hal Rogers should deal with the matter as they see fit and let the chips fall.

Simcoe Teams Still Hunting Semi's Spots

It's the last round up for the Lake Simcoe circuit. The standing has the fans in a whirl. Here it is as of Wednesday noon as we have it.

	W	L	T	Pts.
Mount Albert	13	2	1	27
Hope	13	3	1	27
Keswick	12	4	0	24
Zephyr	10	6	0	20
Pine Orchard	10	7	0	20
Vandorf	7	10	0	14
Sharon	7	11	0	14
Willow Beach	6	10	0	12
Brown Hill	3	14	0	6
Queensville	2	16	0	4

Here's the games listed to wind up the schedule: Aug. 18, Vandorf at Keswick, Aug. 19, Pine Orchard at Mount Albert; Aug. 20, Keswick at Willow Beach, Brown Hill at Zephyr, Mount Albert at Hope, Zephyr at Willow Beach (postponed game).

Of course the fans particularly are going to have all eyes on the Mount Albert-at-Hope tussle due this Friday. Sorry we told you it was scheduled for last Friday. The good word is that it will go tomorrow night. And don't think for a minute that the Pine Orchard flock won't be cheering for their hopefuls to come back from Mount Albert with a win. This tilt could possibly decide that fourth play-off spot. Four teams are going into the semi-finals, first and third, second and fourth, two out of three.

Glad to report publicity agent Ivan Eves is able to sit up and take nourishment. Ivan and the rest of the executive better get in the best of shape—we hear several protests are due for a going over tonight.

Sharon was busy last week. Wednesday they eased out a 13-12 win over Queensville, Jack Petrie going to the Sharon mound to record a win over Queensville's Paul Knowles. Sharon ran into a spot of jolly old trouble Friday at Willow Beach. The Beaches doubled up the score on them behind Cec McNeill 12-6. Hope also clipped the Sharon wings with a 16-12 win Monday. It was quite a see-saw struggle, Sharon finishing strongly as Bob McNern homered with the bases fully populated. Those two pals, Don Glover and Les Blunt, hooked up in a duel, Glover taking the win.

Hope wasn't idle, with a 4-1 triumph over Zephyr. Don Glover got the nod for another winner over Ron Kester. Hope at home to Brown Hill had little trouble subduing the Hillers 10-1. Don Glover helped to tack down the victory with a round tripper. Doug Eves also swung out for a four baser.

Pine Orchard had double trouble. At Keswick the Orchard lost a close 6-5 tussle to the Lake Simcoe side. The game, we understand, is under protest. "Chick" Shropshire pounded out a long homer to tie the score but he was ruled out by the base umpire for failure to touch second, 'twas said. It was a mighty fine round of grief came to light when Zepyhr walked right into their ballwick Tuesday. When Zephyr left they boasted an 11-3 win. That doesn't help Pine Orchard one little bit. Ted Tidman on the Orchard mound got poor support, many errors being called against his mates.

Mount Albert put two more victories in the win column as they dunked Vandorf twice. At the Mount it was 9-2, back at Vandorf it was a hard fought 8-6. "Red" Mitchell hurled both wins with Lloyd Preston on the losing end.

Boxla Squad Holds Orangeville To 6-3

Playing one of their strongest games of the season, Newmarket lacrosse squad held the strong Orangeville crew to a 6-3 score Tuesday at the arena. Orangeville currently are in second place in the group standing. Newmarket plays Maple tonight.

The first period went into the records as a scoreless draw. Bill Cornelius sent the invaders into the lead in the second stanza with two quick tallies. Harold Gwyn squared the issue before the half time halt with a pair of scoring thrusts, Ed. O'Holloran assisting on the first.

As in many previous battles, the third period was the downfall of the "red and whites." Orangeville parked three shots behind Harold Shugg in the Newmarket twine cage. The final period was even as each team marked up a goal, Art Jeffers for Orangeville, with Ken Hirtz taking a pass from Scotty Johnston for Newmarket.

Eight penalties were called, four to each team as they stuck strictly to their work. Our squad out-shot the visitors, particularly before half time, but their shooting was erratic. Newmarket line-up:: goal, H. Shugg; def., S. Johnston, P. Standever; centre, H. Gwyn; rover, K. Hirtz; wings, H. Smart, M. Stevenson; alt., Bill Heffner, P. Stewart, E. O'Holloran, R. Harding.
